

erty, thence to the northeastern corner of the John Booker property, thence to the northeastern corner of the old cooling station property, thence to the point of beginning.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the qualified voters as set forth above shall elect on the third Monday in April, 1931, between the hours of 6 P. M. and 8 P. M., and annually thereafter three Town Commissioners to serve for one year or until their successors are elected and qualified.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That W. Rembert Phillips and Charles Ross be appointed as judges of the election for the third Monday in April, 1931, and that succeeding judges of election shall be appointed by the Town Commissioners. In case of the failure of said Phillips and said Ross to act as judges for any cause either of them may appoint any other qualified voter in the Town of Barclay to act as judge.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the Town Commissioners of Barclay shall have the power and authority to enter into contracts for lighting the streets of Barclay and to bind the property owners of Barclay for the contract so made.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the Town Commissioners of Barclay shall have the power to maintain order and abate nuisances within the Town of Barclay and to appoint a bailiff to carry out their orders in reference to same.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the Town Commissioners of Barclay shall have authority to levy such a tax on the real estate in Barclay improved by buildings as may be necessary to defray the cost of lighting streets and maintaining order and abating nuisances in said town.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 17, 1931.